

JUSTICE RUFUS PECKHAM DEAD

Member of U. S. Supreme Court Dies From Complication Of Diseases.

SHOCK TO HIS ASSOCIATES.

On Supreme Bench Nine Years—Distinguished for Devoting All His Time to Court Work.

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 24.—Rufus Peckham, justice of the United States supreme court, died at his summer home at Albany at 8:15 tonight.

Death was due to a complication of diseases—heart trouble, bright's disease and hardening of the arteries connected with age.

Justice Peckham had been in ill health for some time, but his condition was not considered serious until recently. Following adjournment of the May term of the United States supreme court, he came on from Washington with Mrs. Peckham, expecting to return to Albany at the beginning of the October term.

A few days ago his condition became such that his physicians said he was unable to live at any time or might linger for several months. Up to a few days ago Justice Peckham exhibited great strength, and was able to walk about the house. The circulatory disturbance, which contributed to his death, was first noticed about six years ago.

HIS ASSOCIATES SHOCKED.

Washington, Oct. 24.—The announcement of the death of Justice Peckham, who expected to come to his associates on the bench and in official circles, and everywhere expressions of regret were heard.

Justice Peckham was a Democrat, and before taking a seat on the bench, gave considerable attention to politics. He was born in Albany, N. Y., Nov. 8, 1838, and had been on the bench since and federal for 26 years. He came from the court of appeals of his native state.

Justice Peckham's first office was that of district attorney of Albany county. He was elected to that position in 1868. He afterwards became a judge, a member of the supreme court of the state and associate justice of the state court of appeals. He was the last of President McKinley's Democratic appointees to the federal supreme court, Chief Justice Fuller and Justice White being the others. He took his seat in January, 1890.

His chief distinction was that of giving his time exclusively to the duties of the court. He accepted no outside appointments and undertook no work not connected with the high tribunal. He was in constant attendance on the court.

After suffering ten years

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

MARLTON, N. J.—I feel that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has given me new life. I suffered for ten years with serious female troubles, inflammation, ulceration, indigestion, nervousness, and could not sleep. Doctors gave me up, as they said my troubles were chronic. I was in despair, and did not care whether I lived or died, when I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; so I began to take it, and am well again and relieved of all my suffering. —Mrs. Grover Jones, Box 40, Marlton, N. J.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotics or harmful drugs, and today holds the record for the largest number of actual cures of female diseases we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials are on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., from women who have been cured from almost every form of female complaint, inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion and nervous prostration. Every suffering woman owes it to herself to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.

If you would like special advice about your case write a confidential letter to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free, and always helpful.

court and he gave the most careful attention to all matters before it. He was married but went little into society. He accepted no invitations to public functions and made no public addresses after taking his seat as a justice. Cases involving the rights of corporations received special consideration at Justice Peckham's hands and he was the author of some of the court's most noteworthy opinions of recent date along this line.

Among them may be mentioned the case of the Consolidated Gas company of New York, in which he held, while rates fixed by the legislature must allow a fair return on investments, federal courts could not interfere with the joint traffic and the Trans-missouri cases, in both of which he held the law to be applicable. He also presented and delivered the opinion of the court in the case of Attorney-General Young of Minnesota, in which he held that the federal courts could interfere with the execution by the state courts of an unconstitutional state law.

TRIBUTES OF ASSOCIATES.

When the news of Justice Peckham's death was broken to the other members of the supreme court tonight, all were deeply affected.

Chief Justice Fuller expressed his sorrow and said that the passing of Justice Peckham was a severe loss to the American bench.

Justice Harlan was overcome with emotion when he heard the news. "It is a great loss to the country," he said. "Justice Peckham was one of the ablest jurists who ever sat on the American bench. He was absolutely pure in mind and thought, and free from everything that would prevent him from rendering an honest judgment in any case brought before him. He had strong political convictions, but when on the bench he knew no partisan politics and cared nothing for them. His sole desire was to administer the law as it was and to give each party in every case his just rights. I had a great personal affection for him and he was one of the purest men I ever knew."

The other members of the tribunal spoke in similar terms of Justice Peckham's life and services. The justices are so closely bound together by common ties that the passing of any one of them is sorely felt. There was genuine mourning tonight among those with whom the late jurist had served so long and this extends to the employees of the supreme court.

QUESTION OF SUCCESSOR.

None of the officials would discuss tonight the probable successor to Judge Peckham, each declaring that it would be a violation of the proprieties. The names of Frederick N. Judson, of St. Louis; former Secretary of War Luke E. Wright; the present secretary, J. H. Dickinson; Henry M. Hoyt, counsel for the state department and solicitor general in the Roosevelt administration; and Solicitor Gen. Bowers have been prominently mentioned.

Mr. Judson is known to command the respect and firm friendship of President Taft.

The names of Councillor Hoyt, former Secy. Wright, Secy. Dickinson and Solicitor Gen. Bowers have been suggested whenever the report has arisen concerning the probable retirement of certain of the justices who are entitled to honorable withdrawal from active duty. Three of them owe their entrance into public life to President Taft, while he has frequently voiced his admiration of Mr. Hoyt's legal acumen.

JACOB SUTER SAYS COOK NEVER CLIMBED MCKINLEY

Bellingham, Wash., Oct. 24.—Jacob Suter, a former Alaska miner and mountaineer, today issued a statement in which he says Dr. Cook never reached the top of Mount McKinley, and that the explorer was forced to abandon his attempt to gain the summit after climbing 8,000 feet, a wall of ice barring his further ascent.

Suter claims to have witnessed Cook's performance through a pair of field-glasses, and he says that Mount McKinley can never be ascended. Suter's statement follows:

"The McCarty brothers of San Francisco, Sam May of this city and myself were on the mountain when Cook and his party arrived. We saw them start up the Yatra river and they came back because the route was too difficult. Then they went up the Shushitine river and got up to the wall of ice on Mount McKinley, which is many miles from the top.

"Through the glasses we saw them turn back and come down. I have prospected all over the base of Mount McKinley, and have been to the point reached by Cook. Several others have reached that height, and that is as high as anyone will ever get on account of that wall of ever-changing ice, which cannot be scaled even though steps were cut in its side.

"I have been on all the big mountains of explored Alaska, and I can tell when the peaks are impossible of ascent. Mount McKinley will never be scaled, and the top can only be reached by a flying machine. The same applies to Mount Roosevelt and Mount Foraker, both of which stand close to McKinley."

STEEL CORPORATION GOING IN FOR TEMPERANCE

Pittsburg, Oct. 25.—It is asserted that the United States Steel corporation has decided to make an effort to control the drinking of 25,000 persons in Fayette county, Pennsylvania, who are interested in the manufacture of coke and will invest $10,000,000 in a project to obtain possession of nine breweries now running in the county.

It is understood that the steel corporation will try to regulate the drinking of the foreigners, it being figured that at least 3 per cent better returns can be gleaned on the millinery invested thereby regulating the drink of the coke workers—permitting them to drink, but stipulating where and when they shall drink.

The sale of beer by the keg or barrel to the coke worker is what the corporation objects to, and will try to remedy. For more than a year figures have been gathered on drinking among coke workers, and it is found that for 72 hours after each pay day the coke ovens do not run more than two-thirds their capacity, and there is scarcely a pay day when hundreds of tons of coke are not ruined by inability to get proper men to care for it in the ovens.

MINISTERS GET AFTER TAMMANY

Rev. Dr. S. A. McArthur Declares It Is the Vildest Political Organization World Ever Saw.

RABBI WISE DENOUNCES IT.

Rev. C. F. Aked, Rockefeller's Pastor, Says America's One Conspicuous Failure Is Her Cities.

New York, Oct. 24.—With the exception of a reception at the Hotel Astor to William Randolph Hearst, the Independent, or Civic Alliance candidate for mayor, political activity in Greater New York today centered almost wholly in the pulpits.

Hearst spoke at the reception during the afternoon, but both of his opponents, William Gaynor, Democrat, and Otto T. Baumgardner, Republican, refused. All three, however, will be on their feet tomorrow and will deliver many speeches until election day, Nov. 2. In some pulpits politics was touched upon with as much vehemence as orators have shown in the last week; in others the pastors confined themselves to veiled references in sermon and prayer.

"The issue is the defeat of Tammany hall," said the Rev. D. S. A. McArthur of the Calvary Baptist church, in addressing his current events class. "Tammany is the vilest political organization the world has ever known. There is not today in any land such a band of political pirates as that of Tammany hall. Its present boss is master of our mayor."

"When our mayor was studying science and philosophy in Princeton, the present boss of Tammany hall was washing glasses behind a bar in the 'Gashouse' district." This man is now king of New York. It is amazing that intellectual, patriotic Americans submit to the rule of the coarse, ignorant, tyrannical mob. Such a rule brings contempt upon the city and upon a democratic government. If Judge Gaynor is elected, the same boss will be his master."

Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, at the Free synagogue, declared the time was fraught with danger to the multitude of Jewish people in New York by reason of the recent visit of a delegation of 13 Jewish ministers who called upon Justice Gaynor and announced their support. "Through the eyes of the 'self-appointed representatives of Hebrew communities in this city,'" he said, "for from time to time it is said in people of the recent visit of a delegation of 13 Jewish ministers who called upon Justice Gaynor and announced their support. Through the eyes of the 'self-appointed representatives of Hebrew communities in this city,'" he said, "for from time to time it is said in people of the recent visit of a delegation of 13 Jewish ministers who called upon Justice Gaynor and announced their support.
